"Paul Davis leaves no doubt in our minds why he is considered one of Canada's premier experts on Internet safety and social networking. During his virtual meet with the staff and students of Corpus Christi Catholic Middle School, he shared vital information and opened all of our eyes to some scary truths. We are extremely grateful for his on-going work to promote Internet safety for everyone, but especially for our youth, the most vulnerable members of our society. We anxiously look forward to having him back at CCMS next school year to speak to our new Gr.7 students and parent community!" Dean Favero - Principal, Corpus Christi Catholic Middle School.
