

TVO Today provides insight and information about life in Ontario and beyond, with resources including animated video explainers and stories from Indigenous perspectives.

Trusted journalism

Explore TVO Today's current affairs journalism, including The Agenda with Steve Paikin, The Thread with Nam Kiwanuka, regional Ontario Hubs coverage, reporting from Indigenous communities and arts education through TVO Arts.

Award-winning docs

Watch documentaries for thoughtful and diverse perspectives about everyday life. Available for free anytime online at TVO.org, YouTube and smart TV streaming services.

Do you have students interested in making videos? The TVO Today Short Doc Contest has an award for filmmakers aged 14-18! Submission deadline is December 2022. Find out more at ShortDoc.TVO.org.

Insightful podcasts

Listen to immersive audio-based journalism including must-listen series like Screen Time, The Art of Sovereignty, This Being Human and Digital Publishing Award winner Unascertained. Available anywhere you get podcasts.

Explore TVO.org for more.

Subscribe to email newsletters
TVO.org/newsletters.

Questions? Contact us at
AskTVO@TVO.org.

